

<https://nativecreationspa.com/job/conservation-landscape-technician/>

Conservation Landscape Technician

Description

Full-time seasonal with anticipated winter layoff – subject to change based on workload and weather. Seasonal work runs from March – Mid December.

Interested Candidates must possess the following:

- valid driver's license
- be flexible with travel and overnight stays
- pass pre-employment drug screening
- pass all FMCSA requirements to operate commercial vehicles
- good physical condition as project environments vary and can consist of tough terrain.
- strong work ethic
- desire to learn
- be teachable
- positive attitudes

Landscape Technician -No experience is required and will train the right people.

General knowledge of use of common hand tools is preferable.

If you have a passion for the outdoors and conservation, this may be the right position for you.

Competitive benefit packages include: health insurance allowance, paid time off, retirement plan, travel per diem, paid overtime

The work consists of the following:

Responsibilities

Conservation:

- Tree planting on small and larger scale projects using various size planting stock and tools
- Herbicide work to include invasive species control, herbaceous control around

Hiring organization

Native Creations Landscape Services

Employment Type

Full-time

Job Location

Remote work from: Pennsylvania

Date posted

May 25, 2022

Button

apply

trees – mainly backpack work carried out under a licensed applicator

-Project Stewardship

-Project sites and terrain can vary

Landscape:

-Plant & material installation for residential and commercial projects

-Landscape Maintenance to include weeding, pruning shrubs / small trees, mulching

-Hardscape projects – patios, walkways, retaining walls

Snow / Ice Management:

-Operating Snow and Ice Management equipment to include plow trucks, heavy and light duty equipment, snowblowers, shovels

Working Hours

Normal schedule is Mon – thurs. 7:00 – 5:30 – working 4, 10 hour days. At times, longer days are and Friday work is necessary. Schedule may change due to climate / weather. We do normally work through inclement weather depending on the task.